Church Council Update

- The church council met on Saturday, October 5th, for several hours to review the composition and responsibilities of the council positions. As this was an exhaustive "deep dive" into the structure of the council, the results are still being fine tuned and reviewed. We hope to share our results and some changes very soon. - Church Council and Pastor

Congregational Annual Meeting

- All members, please plan to attend a congregational meeting after worship on Sunday, November 17. Council positions and the ministry plans and budget for 2014 will be presented and discussed, and your input is very important.

New Bible Study

- If you walk into a Christian bookstore, you will find dozens of different English translations of the Bible. Why are there so many? Which should you buy? Which is accurate and reliable? Is there a perfect translation? These questions become even more important now, as the translation we usually use (NIV) is no longer being published. Join us, as we discuss these questions from a biblical perspective Sundays at 9:15 am, beginning November 3.

Newsletter Announcements: If you have news, upcoming events, and prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen at katiesl@hotmail.com.

Sermons: Did you miss a Sunday? Do you want to share a message you heard with someone else? Copies of last week's sermon are available by the mailboxes. You can also find both written and audio versions of sermons on our website.

Mission Prayers

Commission on Inter-Church Relations – We pray for the professors and pastors who serve on the WELS Commission on Inter-Church Relations. As these men represent us in doctrinal discussions with other Lutheran church bodies that may or may not be in fellowship with our synod, may their work help to extend and conserve the true doctrine and practice of the Evangelical Lutheran Church throughout the world. Give them a solid knowledge of your Word and a good ability to show from your Word what the truth is. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our Shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Monty)
- Lance Telander (father of Michael Telander), who is battling Waldenstrom macrolulinemia
- Jennifer Johnson, who is recovering from injuries suffered in a car accident

Request prayers of your pastor and/or your fellow Christians using a prayer request form by the mailboxes or online: www.LambofGodColumbus.org/prayers

A Thought from the Word

2 Corinthians 8:1-12

There is so much need around us. Daily we are interrupted by telephone calls soliciting our donations to well-deserving causes. We hear of elderly people in nursing homes who never have visitors and children in need of mentors. Boards within our congregations seek to fill empty spots and add to their committees in order to carry out the ministry of our churches.

We may become overwhelmed. Where do we start? How can I, one person, fill all these needs? Often guilt accompanies these questions. What is God asking of us? According to the Apostle Paul, we are expected to give according to what we have. He was speaking here of monetary offerings, but his admonition relates to the sharing of our time and abilities as well. The key, Paul seems to say, is to be willing. "If the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable."
