A Thought from the Word

Reformation

Mark 13:5-11

Praise the Lord that he has compelled us to believe that the Bible is the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Even though we live in a world that does its best to convince us to believe we have a lot to worry about, we know that wars, national conflicts, earthquakes, and famines are simply the birth pains of this world as it waits for its day of destruction. Earthly blessings are temporary. Through faith in Jesus we can confidently look forward to the day he will deliver us from this vale of tears and take us to a perfect heavenly kingdom. Meanwhile we will focus on what's important, that our congregations and our church body have adequate resources to preach the gospel to as many nations as possible so that many other people may still be saved.

OCTOBER 28TH

ATTENDANCE: 50 (19 Adult BC; 10 SS w/teachers) (13 Monday night BC 10/22)
OFFERINGS: $1874.45 ($1731.95 General Fund) ($125 Building Fund) ($17.50 SS)

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our nation, as we near Election Day

Mission Prayers

Africa – Lord, we are blessed when it comes to being able to get together with other believers on a personal level. Beyond our congregation there are many other churches close by that are in fellowship with ours. It is wonderful to get together for conferences, conventions, and other events throughout the year. But there are places in the world—like Africa—where the opportunity to get together as a larger church body just doesn't happen very often. Although we still work together in your ministry, it is encouraging to be able to see each other and to worship together. Even though you have promised that we are never alone, thank you for the opportunity to see the larger church family that we are a part of in you. Amen.
