Mission Prayers

Taiwan – Righteous Lord, we thank you for the work you do in Taiwan. Watch over our WELS missionary there, Kevin Stellick and his wife, Sarah, and their family. Protect them. Keep them in your tender care. Prosper their labors. Also, strengthen the national pastor and evangelists serving you in Taiwan. Shelter them and their families under your holy wings. Give physical safety to this island nation from all threats. Let these workers be shining lights of gospel truth. You have sent them as lights into the world, because you are the Light. Whoever follows you will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken)
- Sgt. Ross Cameron, serving in Afghanistan
- Dick Ritter, for his continuing health concerns
- Katie Chen, whose grandmother was called home to heaven on Tuesday.

A Thought from the Word

Advent 3

Philippians 4:4-7

How can God's people be calm and comfortable, even full of joy in this life, especially at this time of year? We deplore what our world has made of this holy season. We regret what our own lives have become as holiday stresses mount higher and higher. How can we rejoice? In the Lord! We find our comfort in the gracious, eternal peace that our Savior has established by his life, death, and resurrection. That peace stands as God's sentry at the door of our hearts, enabling us to reflect Christ's love in our lives, even during the stressful moments of life.
