

Mission Prayers

Synod ministry – Lord, your love endures forever. We know that from your Word and from history. We have seen that to be true this past year. Thanks for the opportunity to reach more families through early childhood ministry, for a successful youth rally and Lutheran Women’s Missionary Society convention this past summer, for the thousands of souls in our fellowship in Africa, for new home missions, for helping us reach more people in other countries through technology and publications, and for the recent graduates called into ministry from our ministerial education schools. As we look ahead, we know you will guide our synod with choosing a Bible translation as well as implementing a long-range plan. We know this, Lord, because your love truly does endure forever. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken)
- Sgt. Ross Cameron, serving in Afghanistan
- Dick Ritter, for his continuing health concerns
- Polius family, members of Trinity Lutheran Church in St. Lucia, who lost their home and father in a house fire.

A Thought from the Word

Advent 1

Jeremiah 33:14-16

Unfulfilled expectations and broken promises are so common in our modern world that we’re amazed when we experience someone who actually lives up to their word. In fact, we likely offer them our heartfelt thanks. How refreshing! So, what’s our reaction when the holy God offers the greatest of promises—that of a righteous Savior who will be Our Righteousness? We watch in holy wonder and joy-filled amazement as God fulfills that promise to the letter in Christ. May that wonder and amazement be reflected in our lives as we offer ourselves as expressions of thanks to him!
