Mission Prayers

Commission on Worship – O Lord our God, what joy fills our hearts as we gather for worship in your house! You have blessed us since 1993 with Christian Worship: A Lutheran Hymnal. As we look to the future and the publication of a new hymnal in 2024, we ask your blessings upon Rev. Michael Schultz as he begins his work as project director for this undertaking. Bless those who will work with him as they seek to address beneficial worship trends and consolidate worship resources into one book within WELS. May all our work and worship be pleasing to you. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Lent 2

Jeremiah 26:8-15 and Luke 13:31-35

Today’s Old Testament and Gospel readings share with us the boldness of the Prophet Jeremiah and our Savior. It is evident that nothing was going to derail Jeremiah or Jesus from accomplishing the work each was called to do. May all of us emulate Jeremiah and Jesus in our own lives as Christians. May the Lord compel us to let nothing take our focus off our main purpose in life which is summed up quite well by our synod’s theme: “Christ’s Love, Our Calling.” May the way we manage our lives, our finances, and our time reveal that Jesus has a grip on us.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Monty)
- Sgt. Ross Cameron, who has returned home safely from Afghanistan
- Dick & Jocelyn Ritter, as Dick has returned home after several weeks of physical therapy and rehabilitation.
- Janet and the Gregory Family
