Mission Prayers

Nigeria – Lord of the Church, you have assured us that natural disasters are signs of your imminent return. Let us therefore see such catastrophes as opportunities to show your love to a dying world. We pray specifically for WELS Christian Aid and Relief's cooperative efforts with All Saints Lutheran Church in Nigeria as together we seek to help people in areas still reeling from devastating floods last fall. Let your light shine through our actions and let your Spirit work through your Word. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

For a long time, the world's most knowledgeable people believed that men had more teeth than women. Why? Because, Aristotle had concluded, men have warmer bodies. It turns out that neither of these "facts" was actually true, but nevertheless this false belief was maintained for more than a thousand years. With the benefit of twenty-first century hindsight, it's easy to laugh at the ridiculous beliefs of the ancients, but in this reading Paul reminds us that our modern insights are no better: human wisdom remains entirely impotent in leading us to salvation. What joy is then found in knowing that "the foolishness of God" is wiser than our wisdom, and that this message of the cross is the power of God.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken)
- Dick & Jocelyn Ritter, as Jocelyn is recovering from an ankle infection.
- Janet and the Gregory Family
- Salzwedel & Wintrich Families, who mourn the death of loved ones.
- Our outreach efforts, as Easter postcards were mailed this week.
