European chaplaincy – Dear Father in heaven, even when we are separated from friends and family, you are near. We thank you for the opportunity to provide a pastor to WELS members who are scattered across Europe through our European chaplaincy. We ask your blessing on Pastor Joshua Martin, his family, and all the families and individuals he serves. Continue to nourish them through your Word and sacrament and encourage them with the fellowship they share with one another. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Lent 5

Isaiah 43:16-21

Why did God make you? To enjoy yourself? To serve yourself? No. God made you, and all Christians together with you, for himself. God formed us for himself so that in all we do, we would proclaim his praise. Jesus died for us so that whether it's Sunday morning, Tuesday afternoon, or Friday night, in all we do, we would proclaim his praise.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Monty)
- Dick & Jocelyn Ritter, for their continued health concerns
- Janet and the Gregory Family
- Monty Taylor, who is undergoing tests and treatment for fainting spells
- Dave & Katelyn Tillman, who were blessed with a healthy baby girl, Rosemary Ann, on March 11
- Our outreach efforts, as we hold our Easter for Kids event and invite others to our Holy Week worship.
