Mission Prayers

LPS & MLS – Dear Jesus, you teach us to pray to you to send out workers into the harvest field, for the harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Today we pray especially for the faculty, staff, and students at our ministerial education preparatory high schools, Michigan Lutheran Seminary in Saginaw, MI and Luther Preparatory School in Watertown, WI. Through the power of the gospel and the encouragement of loving parents and faculty, we pray that you move many of the students to pursue the public ministry. We pray that you would also lead those who choose other professions to use their gifts to your service as well. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Monty)
- Sgt. Ross Cameron, who has returned home safely from Afghanistan
- Janet and the Gregory Family
- Salzwedel Family, as Beth's mother passed away this week
- Wintrich Family, as Enrico's mother passed away this week

A Thought from the Word

Lent 3

Exodus 3:1-8b, 10-15

To come near God, we learn with Moses, is to stand on holy ground. What grace that we can even approach God at all, in Christ! Note in the lesson what the result will be when God single-handedly rescues his people of old: They will return to God to worship him. May we likewise worship our holy God by all we think, say, and do in response to his grace.
