Mission Prayers

Resurrection Lutheran Church, Chesapeake, Va. – Almighty God, we praise you for the blessings that you have showered on Resurrection Lutheran Church in Chesapeake, Va., over the past few years. They are able to gather together to worship you and sing your praises in a new and beautiful facility, one that certainly catches the eye of many of who pass by. Still we come to you today because they face the same challenge that so many of our congregations face: following up with their visitors. Bless their efforts, and all of our congregations' efforts, to reach out to those first time visitors to let them know the true treasure that is found in our churches: the timeless and effective Word of God. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Easter 5

Acts 13:44-52

Joy and opposition. Paul experienced this throughout his ministry. And which won out? Joy! You have the same struggle. So many things sit in opposition to a giving heart. What, though, can overcome this opposition? Joy! You have been given eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus. God is using you to give others that very same gift. May the joy of knowing salvation and knowing that God is using you to bring salvation to others move you to face any opposition and be victorious in Christ.
