On Saturday, July 13, Shepherd of Peace, Powell, is hosting Daniel Dexter, who will present a word-for-word storytelling of portions of Jonah, Luke, and John. Join them and invite your friends for this powerful presentation of God's living Word. A hotdog cookout at 5:00 pm will be followed by the storytelling at 6:00.

A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 6

1 Kings 19:14-21

Elijah was very zealous. Everyone else had lost the faith. He was the lone ranger of Israel—so he thought. God told him, “Guess again. Seven thousand have not gone to Baal.” God calls on us to get up and get with the program in the invisible church and in that visible place where we hear the Word and gather with the faithful. May he inspire us to build his kingdom. May he keep us from seeing ourselves as the battered remnant. May he change hearts through our efforts!

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Monty)
- Dick Ritter and Jeri Pedersen, through continued health problems
- Our nation, as we celebrate the freedoms God has given us

To ask for the prayers of your pastor and/or your fellow Christians, complete a prayer request form by the mailboxes or online at
