A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 8

Luke 10:25-37

The Samaritan was likely headed somewhere that day and had not allowed for a sizable delay. The Samaritan was likely not a man of great wealth and had not included a medical bill and a hotel bill in his monthly budget. But the opportunity to help his neighbor was there, and he seized it. We confess the times we have not used our time and our treasures (and isn't that really part of the problem—that we think of them as "ours"?) to help our neighbor, and we rejoice in a Savior who always took the time to help us, even being willing to give up the treasures of heaven to do so. May we, mindless of the "extra expense," live similarly toward our neighbor.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Dick)
- Dick Ritter, as he recovers from knee surgery
- Our Vacation Bible School, as we share Jesus with the children

To ask for the prayers of your pastor and/or your fellow Christians, complete a prayer request form by the mailboxes or online at
