New Worship Series

- Next Sunday, we begin a new worship series, Love Speaks. As Christians, we confess with St. Paul, “We also believe and therefore speak” (2 Cor 4:13). God’s people who hear his Word naturally share it with others. This special series will motivate us and guide us in sharing our faith. Join us for every Sunday of this seven-week series. We pray for God’s blessings as his love guides us in our calling.

Mission Prayers

Lutheran schools – Good Shepherd, we pray that you would bless James Rademan as he begins to serve our synod as the associate director of the Commission on Lutheran Schools. Bringing up the next generation to know you as their Savior is one of the most important jobs that you have given to your church on earth. May your Holy Spirit do exactly what he has promised and work through the Word to cause your lambs to grow in knowledge and faith. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 9

Luke 10:38-42

We sometimes think that we are the first generation to ever have been busy—the first generation to ever have to make choices concerning the use and stewardship of our time. It's not true, of course. (What Martha wouldn't have given for the use of a time-saving microwave!) Mary surely had many things beckoning to her that day—including God-pleasing service to her Lord. But even that paled in comparison to using her time for the one thing needful—the hearing of her Savior's Word. Yes, there is a need for council meetings and trimming the church's hedges and balancing the congregation's checkbook and organizing the congregation potluck, but the best stewardship of our time still comes when we sit with Mary at Jesus' feet.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Dick)
- Dick Ritter, as he recovers from knee surgery
- Lori Burrows, whose grandmother was called home to heaven this past week
