New Worship Series

- Our special worship series, Love Speaks, continues next week. Given the reaction by many to the love of Christ, we may be tempted to be shy and quiet in our witness of our Savior. Our fears of not knowing what to say or how people might react can get the best of us. Next week God encourages us that we can be confident as Christ's love speaks through us because we have God's promise that this isn't our message but God's. That same God promises never to leave us as we speak of his love. Join us for this great encouragement in our witnessing for Christ.

Janet Gregory & Family Updates

- Benefit Golf Scramble Tee It Up "Fore" Janet is this Saturday, August 3. If you would like to make a donation (50% of which will be matched) or volunteer to help, contact Dave or Brenda Szcublewski.

A Thought from the Word

Luke 13:22-30

Jesus was the master teacher. What did he teach? He taught the gospel. He taught that there is forgiveness and salvation in him, that God's love has been shown to all people in him. That was his message and mission. He and he alone is the door to eternal life. Jesus Christ is our greatest treasure. The gifts God gives us to enjoy and use here on earth are transitory. The gift of salvation through Jesus is a gift that lasts forever. May we use what God gives us here on earth to spread his name so that many might enter the narrow door of heaven.
