Next Week's Worship

- Love doesn't do what is best for the short term but rather focuses on the long term. It keeps in mind the desired goal and sets priorities that will help reach that goal. Ultimately God has called us to join him in the mansion of heaven when our time on this earth is over. Our worship next weekend will remind us that as we consider our calling in Christ our Love Speaks with Focused Heart. God is glorified as our love speaks, focusing not on earthly riches but on his glory.

Sunday School Begins Again

- Offerings given during the Sunday School/ Bible Study hour are now designated for WELS Christian Aid & Relief. Learn more about them at www.wels.net/relief.
- There will be no Sunday School or Bible Study on September 1. Our regular schedule of Bible Study and Sunday School classes resumes September 8 at 9:15 am. Join us!

Serving Our Lord

- We are also looking for volunteers to help with church cleaning, refreshments, greeting, ushering, mowing the lawn, and caring for our altar. Sign up in the fellowship hall.

Mission Prayers

Ministerial Education – Lord Jesus, as a new year of training begins in our synodical schools, keep students safe as they travel to our high schools, our college, and our seminary. From oldest down to preschoolers, give quick minds for learning. Endow our teachers with wisdom guided by love, with character students can emulate, and a firm handle on the deep truths of the faith. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

1 Timothy 1:12-17

What did Paul do that God should show him mercy? He blasphemed, he persecuted, and he killed. His ignorance and unbelief weren't excuses for his behavior—they just explain it. God didn't show Paul mercy because he was a diamond in the rough, but rather because he needed it so desperately. And God wasn't stingy: He poured out Jesus and every blessing that comes with him onto the worst of sinners so that he could be a role model of God's grace, so that people might witness his changed status and life before God and realize that God's mercy is also for them. Sound familiar? What God did for Paul, he did for you. God hasn't been stingy with his grace. We need not be either.
