LOG Announcements

Next Week's Worship

- The famous mission hymn reminds us, "Let none hear you idly saying, 'There is nothing I can do,' while the multitudes are dying and the master calls for you" (CW 573). Human life is frail. It can end at any time. God has called us to work while it is day because soon the night will come when no work can be done. When you have a message as awesome as Christ's love, which saves souls from dying eternally, love can't help but speak with urgency so that more can be saved and live with God forever. This is our focus next weekend as we gather in worship: Love Speaks with Urgency.

Sunday School Begins Again

- There will be no Sunday School or Bible Study on September 1. Our regular schedule of Bible Study and Sunday School classes resumes September 8 at 9:15 am. Join us!
- Offerings given during the Sunday School/Bible Study hour are now designated for WELS Christian Aid & Relief. Learn more about them at www.wels.net/relief.

Congregational Meeting

- Mark your calendars for our next congregational meeting, which will be after our service on September 29.

Interactive Faith Online Bible Study

- Join brothers and sisters in faith from around the country in an online Bible study led by Professor Keith Wessel of Martin Luther College, Wednesdays at 7:30 or 9:30 pm, beginning September 4. Marvel at the grace of God...even in times of rampant apostasy. To join the study, visit www.wels.net/interactivefaith.

Serving Our Lord

- We are looking for volunteers to help with church cleaning, refreshments, greeting, ushering, mowing the lawn, and caring for our altar. Sign up in the fellowship hall.
- Already signed up? Do you want to check when you are scheduled to usher, mow, clean, etc.? Visit tinyurl.com/LOGVolunteers

Church Renovations

- A team is being formed to consider renovations and updates to our facility. If you are interested in being a part of the team, contact David Chen.

Make a Joyful Noise to the Lord!

Mission Prayers

Cameroon – Holy Spirit, as you have granted our church body so much clarity in your biblical truths, grant us also the privilege of being the most active and generous of all Christian denominations. In the country of Cameroon, your gospel has long been available. Now make our brothers and sisters there in our partner church body bold and courageous, sincere and faithful. Bless the continuing education of their pastors and evangelists so they too may employ the rich treasures, old and new, of your Holy Scriptures. Let Satan's plans and schemes against them fall flat, while your plans and purposes shine with grace and success. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Dick Ritter, who has returned home after rehab for his knee surgery
- Sunday School teachers, as they prepare to share God's Word with our children
- Ian Gregory, who begins classes at Duquesne University on August 26
- James Roecker and Aaron Duve, who are serving as vicars this year at Beautiful Savior, Grove City, and St. Paul's, Columbus

Request prayers of your pastor and/or your fellow Christians using a prayer request form by the mailboxes or online: www.LambofGodColumbus.org/prayers

A Thought from the Word

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus was fond of using parables involving money in order to teach spiritual truths—think of the Unmerciful Servant, the Talents, the Workers in the Vineyard. Here, however, Jesus uses a parable involving money to actually address the way Christians use their money. Get a clue from the unbelieving world! Be wise with your money! It's valuable! Not, however, in the way the unbeliever values it, as a master he serves. It's valuable, rather as a means of proclaiming God's means of grace. The money that we give to the Lord through the church enables the seminary student to devote his time to study, the missionary to make the evangelism call, the daughter congregation to rent a place to worship. God gives us temporary riches to use wisely, so that we might use them to give
