Mission Prayers

Zambia – Gracious Father of all mankind, thank you for allowing us through our church body to participate in your worldwide kingdom expansion also in the country of Zambia. We get to support missionaries and their families, a Bible institute and seminary, projects and personnel under WELS Kingdom Workers, a medical mission, well-drilling projects, and even translation efforts into their native language. Through our faithful representatives there and our Zambian brothers and sisters you averaged four baptisms per day every day last year! There clearly are not enough workers for this field, and our pastors and missionaries are stretched too thin to serve all the people you are bringing to them. Because you redeemed them all with your Son's life, help us. We want to do more. Open the floodgates of your love through us! Amen.

Tips for Welcoming Guests

When you've been at a church for a while, you get comfortable and forget what it's like to be a guest. Here are some tips to help us all make guests feel welcome and want to visit again.

First impressions make all the difference, so...

- Park your car far from the door, so guests don't have to.
- Greet guests with a smile as soon as they come in the door (in the parking lot is even better!).
- Leave seats open in the back of the church and at the end of rows for late arrivals.
- Watch for more tips in future newsletters.

A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 13

Ephesians 5:15-20

Society has always been at odds with the church. What the world wants is not in harmony with what the church teaches. If we think our society is anti-Christian, we only need to look back into history or to other places in the world to find societies and situations where the church suffers even more persecution. Yet we do not drop out of society in order to fulfill Christ's mission. We manage our lives and our church in a way that gives a positive witness to society of what we believe. We can encourage one another in worship, in our meeting together to study the Word, in our fellowship. Our corporate witness is in how every member gives of self to support the common goals of the congregation: "always giving thanks to God the Father for everything."
