Sunday Sermon Series:

September 16, 2012

Did you miss a Sunday? Do you want to share a message you heard with someone else? Copies of last week's sermon are available by the mailboxes. You can also find both written and audio versions of sermons on our website.

Mission Prayers

Brazil – Lord of the Church, as our church body prepares to send a full-time missionary back into the country of Brazil, grant whoever accepts this call safety and multiple open doors for outreach. Thank you for the special gifts given to make this outreach possible. May we keep this mission work in our prayers as there are over 200 million people in Brazil, many of whom do not know the way to heaven through Jesus Christ. Amen.

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Our shut-ins (Dot, Kitty, Julie, Ken, Dick & Jocelyn)
- Pastor Wagner's family, who hope to close on the sale of their house in Elgin on Monday.
- Sgt. Ross Cameron, serving in Afghanistan
- Dave and Katelyn Tillman, who are expecting their first child this spring.
- Paul Cavote, who is starting a new job after an extended layoff.

A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 16

James 1:17-27

Take care of yourself. Don't let the world pollute your thinking. Keep moral garbage out of your diet. Keep your spirit pure. This is good advice for Christian stewards. We are to be constantly evaluating our relationship to God and to others, especially to others who hold a common faith in the Lord. God's Word serves as a mirror into which we can peer to examine ourselves and how we manage our lives for the Lord. We can then make the proper adjustments. God will bless such changes, our reading says. It also says that we are not only to know what we are to do, or to plan our actions, but to actually do them. For Christian stewards, the joy is in the doing, in the giving, in the serving. May your life always be one of service to God, the Church, and others.
