New Worship & Bible Study Series

- Jesus said, "If you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?" (Luke 16:11). We have been entrusted with so many blessings. How can we be trustworthy in the way that we use them? That will be the focus of a new worship and bible study series beginning Sunday, September 15 – True Riches. Join us for this special series on our Christian calling.

If Pastor Can Do It, You Can Too!

- Pastor says, "Before I joined the choir in college, I thought, 'My voice isn't very good, and I don't really know how to read music.' But I learned how to read music and how to use my voice to glorify God in worship. Now I really enjoy it!" Whether you are looking for a challenge or just some fun, consider joining our choir. Rehearsals begin September 19 at 6:15 pm. All are welcome. No experience needed! Contact Elisabeth Wagner for details.

Newsletter Announcements: If you have news, upcoming events, and prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen at katies1@hotmail.com.

Mission Prayers

Christian Aid and Relief— O Lord, even in times of disaster you provide opportunity for your grace to be proclaimed. People come to learn why disasters take place and that despite losing earthly possessions there is one thing disasters cannot take from them. Thank you for the many volunteers who helped with cleanup all summer following the May tornados that struck parts of Oklahoma. They have been able to help people with their physical and spiritual needs. May their labors bear fruit to your glory. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Romans 5:6-11

What great love the Father has shown us in Jesus Christ! We have been “justified by his blood” and “saved from God’s wrath through him.” Our only response is to rejoice in God. We joyfully keep God’s commands, we joyfully support God’s church, and we joyfully love God above all and our neighbor as ourselves as our way of showing our thanks.
