Mission Prayers

Martin Luther College early childhood center –
Heavenly Father, you call children to come to you, and you give them eternal life. We recognize the urgency in this calling and ask for your hand of blessing upon our Early Childhood Learning Center at Martin Luther College in New Ulm, Minn. Bless our plans to build a new facility that is able to meet the needs of the local area, of future early childhood teachers, and of teachers already in the field who can continue their learning there. Through this ministry and this proposed center of care and learning, may we help children and families come to know you. Amen.

A Thought from the Word

Pentecost 15

Ephesians 6:10-20

The armor is unseen—and so is the enemy. The powers of this dark world hide all around us and quietly go to work in us. The visible blessings God gives are not evil, but the devil and his forces tempt us to use them for evil purposes while they themselves happily go unnoticed. Our only defense is the Lord and his mighty power. He clothes us in his invisible armor, which we put on only by his means of grace. He opens our eyes to see the forces that stand against us and their temptations that seek to topple us. He opens our eyes to see his mighty power, his gospel, his salvation, his peace—not so that we can entirely escape temptation, but so that we can stand against it. The desire and the courage to be godly stewards of visible blessings grow from our awareness of what is unseen and our trust in the Lord and in his mighty power.
