“Thought for this Week”

Read 2 Timothy 1:3-14

As God's elect, his grace in Jesus Christ has been upon us for eternity. The faith he has put in our hearts gives us a spirit of power, love, and self-discipline to fan into flame the best we have to give to God in every aspect of our lives—the best for our families who share God's Word with us, the best for our occupations by which God gives us our possessions, and the best for congregations and synod by which God blesses us with Word and sacrament, the training of workers for God's harvest field, and the sending of workers into his fields at home and around the world.

Mission Prayer: Commission on Inter-Church Relations

Holy Spirit, who alone gives unity of doctrine and practice to the church, we ask your grace and favor on our Commission for Inter-Church Relations as they foster that unity with church bodies in our fellowship and promote that unity with those who are striving to proclaim Christ according to your errorless Word. Use the efforts of this commission to preserve the bond of peace among your faithful people. Amen.

Alpha Center Meeting

The WELS Lutherans for Life and Alpha Center Annual Meeting and Potluck will be on Sunday, January 31, at St. Paul's, 322 E Stewart Ave, Columbus. Come for the meeting at 4:00 to hear how the Gospel is being spread through this unique ministry. Find out how you can use your interests and talents to volunteer at the center or from your home in a variety of ways! Then stay for the potluck and fellowship at 5:00. Everyone is welcome! Any questions, call Cindy Greiner at 614-804-4773.
