

LAMB OF GOD LUTHERAN CHURCH, COLUMBUS, OH
WEEKLY NEWS & NOTES

JANUARY 29, 2017

PASTOR'S CALL

Pastor Wagner has received a divine call to serve as associate pastor at St. John's Lutheran Church in Two Rivers, Wisconsin. A meeting will be held after worship next Sunday, February 5, in which information about the call will be shared and members can ask questions and provide input that will help Pastor Wagner determine where he can best use his gifts in ministry. All are encouraged to attend. Pastor Wagner asks for your prayers and invites any questions or thoughts you have to share.

NEW BIBLE STUDIES

The #1 reason people come to church the first time is that they were invited by someone they knew. All of us can think of missed opportunities to invite someone to church. What stands in our way? How can we show more love to those we love by inviting them to meet the one who loves them unconditionally? Join us at 9:15 am for just three weeks, Sundays, February 5-19, for "Come and See," a bible study on simple ways to share your Savior.

This Wednesday, February 1, at 10:30 am, we are also beginning a new midweek bible study at the Brookdale Chestnut Hill (5055 Thompson Rd, Columbus, behind the Home Depot on Hamilton Rd). Our first study is "Jesus Christ, God's Son, our Savior," a study of Jesus' identity and what it means for our lives. Join us and bring a friend!

ALPHA CENTER ANNUAL MEETING TODAY

The Alpha Pregnancy Counseling Center invites you to celebrate 30 years of ministry in Columbus and find out more about this unique ministry at their Annual Meeting today, January 29, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church (322 Stewart Ave, Columbus). The 4:00 pm meeting will be followed by a potluck dinner at 5:00 pm. All are invited!
