“Thought for this Week”

Read 2 Timothy

4:6-8

May God grant to us the confidence and the faith of the apostle Paul. He had endured severe hardship in his life and even now was facing likely death. Yet because of his faith in his Savior, he was confident that he would experience the great riches of heaven. May we too not lose faith if the riches of this life prove elusive. For after this life we have the greatest riches imaginable waiting for us: the crown of righteousness, a heavenly kingdom, and the glory of our God. Those are the riches that are ours through faith in Christ Jesus.

Mission Prayer: Mexico

Lord of the church, we pray for our ministry in Mexico. Bless the leaders there that they may grow in their joy and ability to lead with the gospel banner raised high. Bless the members of the churches in Mexico, that they may find freedom from fear of violence and unrest. And please bless the church with men studying at the Mexican Lutheran Seminary and lay people who help with ministry so that, by their leadership, many more souls may be won over by your grace. Amen.

If you have news, upcoming events, or prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen (katie1@hotmail.com).

Rainbow Savior

“Do you think I would have chosen to be like this, if I had a choice? Life would be a lot easier to be anything else. If only I didn’t have to be the way I am.” These are common thoughts expressed by those in the LGBT community and by Christians who are giving in to a wayward life-style. What answer can we give to them? What hope is there for them or any of us who ever feel this way? In the next lesson of “Rainbow Savior,” we will search for an answer to this question, find the only solution there is to the whole issue of homosexuality, and rediscover the only true way to happiness and lasting joy for any of us. Join us Wednesdays at 7:15 pm.

Reformation Service

Celebrate the Lutheran Reformation with brothers and sisters in Christ in our WELS Columbus Reformation Service on Sunday, November 1, at 4:00 pm, at St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, 322 E Stewart Ave, Columbus. A meal will follow the service. Contact Pastor Wagner if you would like a ride and need help finding one (or if you are willing to offer a ride).

Volunteers Wanted

We are seeking volunteers to provide and serve refreshments before Sunday School and after worship, to set up for communion, and to serve as greeters. Sign up in the fellowship hall, or contact Pastor Wagner with questions.
