“Thought for this Week”

Read Amos 6:1-7

Our society today bears a striking resemblance to what Amos described. We have a severe case of what one economist calls “affluenza.” The general affluence of our society can make us apathetic to the crying needs of the world around us. Our God, who is affluent in love and mercy, was not apathetic about us. He cared deeply about us and sent his Son to save us in our time of desperate need. God’s love for all drives apathy from our hearts. It opens our eyes to the world’s greatest need, that of hearing the gospel message. It makes us excited to use all that God provides to proclaim the good news of Christ and his sacrifice for the salvation of all. In a world of general affluence, there are more than enough resources to do the job. Lord, forgive our apathy!

Mission Prayer: Bethany, Appleton, Wis.

Heavenly Father, thank you for letting the little children—and their families—come to you through our early childhood ministries across the country. May your Word preached to these people nurture them spiritually so that they know your love and share it with others. Guide WELS Home Missions to continue to see the opportunities for outreach that you provide, and may we step up with our offerings to joyfully fund these efforts. Amen.

If you have news, upcoming events, or prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen (katiesl@hotmail.com).

Scott Barefoot Presentation

On Sunday, October 4, at 6:00 pm, WELS member Scott Barefoot will be at Shepherd of Peace, 520 Village Park Dr, Powell, to discuss his struggle to overcome homosexuality and his efforts to help others who are struggling either personally or as a friend or family member of someone who is struggling. You are invited to be a part of this unique opportunity to receive a powerful perspective on a timely topic.

LWMS Mission Day

The Heartland Circuit of the Lutheran Women’s Missionary Society (LWMS) will hold their Fall Mission Day on Saturday, October 17, from 9:00 am - 3:00 pm, at Beautiful Savior, 2213 White

Rd, Grove City. The theme of the day is “Let’s Run with the Gospel.” Featured speaker Sean Young will share how the WELS is working with the Ukrainian Lutheran Church. Continental breakfast, lunch, and childcare are provided. Register online at tinyurl.com/lwmsheartland. Mission offerings are due to Diane Jensen by today. Visit the fellowship hall to give toward a silent auction gift basket or the “Blessings in a Blanket” project.

Rainbow Savior

“Why can’t two people who are in love be together? What religion or reason would ever compel a person to forsake the object of their affection?” How do you respond? In the next lesson of Rainbow Savior, “Diversity of Love,” we will see how God defines love. This lesson will enrich all of our lives as we are reminded what true love is really all about. It’s a discussion for all of us, whether we are personally dealing with the issue of homosexuality or not. Join us Wednesdays at 7:15 pm.

Volunteers Wanted

We are seeking volunteers to provide and serve refreshments before Sunday School and after worship, to set up for communion, and to serve as greeters. Sign up in the fellowship hall, or contact Pastor Wagner with questions.
