“Thought for this Week”

Read Luke 20:27-38

Jesus turned to Scripture to answer questions about life after death. His answers reveal that, because there is life after death, the most important relationship that we have is with our God, yes, even more important than your relationship with your spouse. In heaven earthly relationships will cease and we will all be children of God. Loved by the Father, redeemed by Christ, restored through the work of the Holy Spirit, and delivered from death by God, we live for him right now and will live with him in eternity.

Mission Prayer: Luther Preparatory School

Dearest Savior, you encourage us to ask you to send workers into your harvest field. For 150 years you have answered that prayer for our church body through the Watertown, Wisconsin campus of our ministerial education school system. On that campus you have prepared young people for gospel ministry as pastors and teachers in our synod. We thank you for these faithful workers and ask for your ongoing blessing on the teachers at Luther Prep as they lead young people to serve the Lord of the harvest in the ripe fields around the world. Amen.
