“Thought for this Week”

Read Luke 23:35-43

Knowing that Jesus had saved others, the thief hanging on the cross next to him saw hope there. He looked to Jesus as his Savior. He saw him as a King. He pleaded for mercy. From that moment on, he lived for him who promised: “I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise.” It is that promise, “Today you will be with me in paradise,” that gives up hope and motivates us to worship our King with our words, our actions, our wealth, and our lives. No sin is too great for our King to bear. No trouble is too severe for him to overcome. Our perfect King defeated our enemies through his death and resurrection and gives us paradise.

Mission Prayer: Bulgaria

Jesus, we rejoice in the victory you have won for us. With joy we see that your victory is not just for a few, but for all the world. Today we thank you for blessing our brothers and sisters in the Bulgarian Lutheran Church with a new pastor from their own people. Bless the ministry of Pastor Itsov as he reaches out with the gospel to the Romani people not only in his own country, but throughout the world through the literature he prepares. Be with Pastor Itsov, and his five fellow Bulgarian pastors, as they point more and more people to the triumph which was won for them through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
