“The Word for this Week”

Read John 12:20-33

We are to produce many seeds, not isolate ourselves, as we glory in receiving the grace of God through the death and resurrection of Jesus. As stewards, we are commanded to share the Good News with others and continue planting seeds, with the Lord always by our side. We are to care for those seeds, plant, cultivate, feed, nurture, and harvest them, and then plant again. We are managers of all of God’s gifts, including the spiritual ones. The guidelines for care-taking are in the Word.

Mission Prayer: WELS

Lord God, just as you warned through your apostle that the time would come when people would not put up with sound doctrine, you have also promised that you would send your Spirit through your Word to guard us and to keep us in your saving truth. Keep us humbly grateful that you have preserved your truth in our church body. Give us courage and strength to continue to hold on and to hold forth in love. In this spirit bless our leaders’ informal doctrinal discussions with leaders of the Lutheran Church-Missouri

Synod and our formal doctrinal discussions with representatives of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod and the Church of the Lutheran Confession.

We boldly pray for unity on the basis of truth that results in the coming of your kingdom among us and many others. Amen.
