“The Word for this Week”

Read John 3:1-17

Through baptism we have a new life. We know the simple message that God loved us so much that he sent his one and only Son so that we will not suffer forever in hell, but have eternal life with him in heaven. This is the gospel he entrusts to us. We proclaim that gospel without worry about what kinds of results it might produce. We know that the Holy Spirit will produce the results when and where he pleases. “The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

Mission Prayer: Cameroon

Lord, today we pray for the Lutheran Church of Cameroon as they plan to start their own worker training program this fall. Thank you for leading Pastor Mesue Israel, the church’s only second-generation pastor, to accept the call to be the first full-time Cameroonian teacher and dean of students for this program. Continue to bless the partnership between WELS and the Lutheran Church of Cameroon as we work together to serve the 640 baptized souls that make up the 32 congregations in this country. Amen.

Summer Sunday School

There will be no Bible Study or Sunday School on May 29. Beginning June 5, join us for a cross-generational interactive bible study for all ages Sundays at 9:15 am. We’ll learn and grow together through Bible reading, videos, discussion, activities, and more. This year, we will study Jesus’ parables, timeless stories with timeless truths. Young or old, you won’t want to miss it! Refreshments will be served at 9:00 am.
