

LAMB OF GOD LUTHERAN CHURCH, COLUMBUS, OH
WEEKLY NEWS & NOTES

JULY 3, 2016

SUMMER BIBLE STUDIES

Young and old are invited to study Jesus' fascinating parables in our Cross-Generational Bible Study, "Timeless Stories with Timeless Truths," Sundays at 9:15 am. Enjoy some summer refreshment in God's Word!

Also, come and deepen your faith Wednesdays at 7:00 pm, as we dig into one of the most detailed accounts of God's plan for the world—the book of Romans—verse by verse. Join us for "A Walk through Romans."

4TH OF JULY PARADE

Join us tomorrow to share the good news of our freedom in Christ! We will be participating in the Westerville 4th of July Parade at 1:00 pm. Meet at church at 11:30 am or in the parade lineup at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Westerville at 12:15 pm. Wear a grey Lamb of God softball shirt, if you have one. A cookout at the Wagners' will follow the parade for those who are interested. See Pastor for details.

HANDS & SMILES NEEDED!

Music & Arts Bible Camp is coming soon, and if you have time and hands for a couple hours or days from July 18-22, your help is needed in the following areas: decorating on Sunday, July 17, after church; checking in campers; getting lunch set up and served; getting the art area set up with supplies; assisting kids with their art projects as needed; and/or helping set up the showcase on the afternoon of Friday, July 22. Please get in touch with Elisabeth Wagner to offer your assistance in this important and fun outreach event!

Postcards are also now available to invite friends and neighbors to join us for camp!
