Bible Thought for this Week

Read Genesis 15:1-6.

Do you remember when you could make a deal with the shake of a hand? Today it seems that contracts are not entered upon without legal documents, attorneys, and notarized statements of intent. God operates differently. He needs no handshake to seal the deal. He needs no lawyers to draw up legal documents. He needs no notary to witness his promise. God promised Abram the blessings of a son from his own body. Abram believed the promise of a biological son and the greater promise of the riches of salvation through the coming Savior. When God makes a promise it is a promise that is kept. God has promised to take care of us as we strive to serve him. We can believe he will do just that.

Mission Prayer: Home Missions

Gracious Savior, thank you for the endless opportunities you lay before our synod to share the extraordinary news of your forgiveness. You have moved your loved people to thank you with their gifts to the extent that six new home mission churches might be established across the country.

According to your will, bless these plans. Guide each church to keep you as their focus in all they do and then, when they are ready, bring your elect through their open doors. In your name, O Savior. Amen.

If you have news, upcoming events, or prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen (katiesl@hotmail.com).

Midweek Bible Study

There's a lot in the news about same-sex marriages. What does God say about the issue? How do we respond? How do we show love to those who are caught up in the sin of homosexuality? Join us for our midweek Bible Study, "Rainbow Savior," Wednesdays at 7:00 pm.

'Thank You'

Thank you for your caring words, your prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to us after the tragic death of our son, Gregory. We have been humbled to hear from others the struggles they also have with depression and are grateful for their willingness
