“Thought for this week”

Read: Colossians 2:6-15.

What is your greatest treasure? The unbeliever might answer that question with a long list of worldly possessions. As God’s children we answer the question with one word: Jesus. Jesus leads us to give thanks for the manifold spiritual blessings he has poured into our lives. We cherish the forgiveness that is ours through Jesus. We rejoice in the gift of eternal life. We exult in the freedom we have from sin and its eternal death penalty. We celebrate the relationship we have with God through Jesus. What a precious treasure we have in Jesus!

Mission Prayer: Martin Luther College

Heavenly Father, bless the urban ministry program of Martin Luther College so that teachers are prepared to address the unique needs of students living in cities. Thank you that your Holy Spirit has worked through our inner city schools to transform lives by the love you have showed us in Christ Jesus. Amen.

If you have news, upcoming events, or prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen (katiesl@hotmail.com).

New Midweek Bible Study

There's a lot in the news about same-sex marriages.

What does God say about the issue? How do we respond? How do we show love to those who are caught up in the sin of homosexuality? Join us for our midweek Bible Study, "Rainbow Savior," Wednesdays at 7:00 pm.

"Faith Day" at the Clippers

Come Join us at Huntington Park with the Clippers for "Faith Day". The dates and discounted prices are below.

Kingdom Workers Luncheon

There will be a going away luncheon for Kris and Ashley after worship on August 9. We want to take the opportunity to thank them for all the hard work that they've done with and for our congregation this summer. Everyone is invited and welcome to join us.

'Thank You'

Thank you to all who gave their time, talents, prayers, and donations in support of our Fine Arts Camp. God blessed us with the opportunity to serve 18 children and their families this past week.
