“Thought for this Week”

Read Luke 15:1-10

We were precious to Jesus before Jesus was ever precious to us. Never did he love us more than when we didn't love him. He devoted all of his attention, all of his resources to find you! And when he folded you into his arms through baptism and put you onto his shoulder, he was even happier than you were! Now he bestows on you the honor of joining in his work and sharing in his joy. Through your labor, dollars, words to others, and your prayers to God, you join him in his work of seeking and saving the lost.

Mission Prayer: Campus Ministry

Almighty God, we are blessed to live in a time and place where high-quality university education is so readily available. At the same time, we also know that college presents our youth with new temptations, chief of which is the temptation to turn away from their Christian upbringing. Bless the work of our WELS campus ministries as they work to proclaim your Word to WELS college students this fall, and let this also be an opportunity for your gospel to be shared with those who have never heard it before. Amen.

If you have news, upcoming events, or prayer requests that you would like published in the weekly newsletter, please contact Katie Chen (katiesl@hotmail.com).

What's Your Calling?

Ephesians 4:1 says, "I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received." What is that calling? Your Christian vocation includes your role in your family, your job, your community, and more. In "Understanding Our Calling in Life," a bible study on Christian vocation, we will discover what God says about our calling and encourage one another, as we strive to live a life worthy of the unique callings God has given to each one of us. Join us Sundays at 9:15 am.

Rainbow Savior

"Why can't you just accept me for who I am?" How many tears have been shed with words like that? What does God's Word have to say to that argument of identity from one embracing sin? Who are we really? Are we merely beings of base desire? Are we just animals? Are we something more? In "Embracing True Identity," the next lesson of our Rainbow Savior bible study, we will be refreshed through the Scriptures about who we all really are. In knowing our true selves, our Lord equips us to put to death all false identities. Join us Wednesdays at 7:00 pm.

2016 Ministry Plans

In the weeks ahead, our leadership team will be working on plans for our ministry in 2016. If you have ideas or feedback you would like to share, please contact David Chen (Fellowship), Pastor Wagner (Education), or Dave Szczublewski (Evangelism or other).

Praise the Lord!

Our choir has begun another season of praise and worship. We invite all members to join us. No experience is necessary. Rehearsals are Wednesdays at 6:15 pm. See Elisabeth Wagner for details.
