WEEKLY NEWS & NOTES

SEPTEMBER 25, 2016

SURVEY FOR SELF-ANALYSIS WEEKEND

As part of our upcoming participation in the Self-Analysis and Adjustment program, all members are asked to complete a "Pulse Survey." Check your email for a link. Computers will be set up for those without email or needing assistance after worship today. See Pastor or David Chen with questions.

RENOVATION UPDATES

- A couple of new WELS mission congregations have expressed interest in our unused pulpit, paraments, banners, and gold altar cross. If any members have a better alternative to suggest or would like to claim items for themselves before they are donated to these congregations, please contact Pastor Wagner by October 2.
- Repairs have been made to the exterior of our building, and repainting is being scheduled.
- The automated handicap-accessible opener has now been connected. Please share any feedback on its operation with any church council member.
- New sanctuary seating and the remaining paraments, banners, and stoles have been ordered and will arrive in time for Christmas.
- Gifts are still needed to fund planned renovations. The total anticipated cost is $18,475.00.

FALL FESTIVAL

We are planning a Family Fall Festival for Saturday, October 15, from 2:00-5:00 pm, as an outreach event to our community.

There will be games, food, crafts, a bounce house, and fun for all ages. We are in need of volunteers in many different areas. See Alexandra Wintrich for more information.

Postcards are now available for you to invite friends and neighbors to our Fall Festival.

LWMS FALL MISSION DAY

The Heartland Circuit of the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society will hold their Fall Mission Day at Beautiful Savior in Cincinnati on Saturday, October 1, from 9:00am - 3:00pm. Presenter Dan Simons will share his mission experiences as pastor in Macomb, Michigan. Other highlights of the day include spiritual growth workshops, a session for young women (ages 9-15), worship, and a hands-on mission project. Continental breakfast and lunch will be served. Mission offerings are due to Diane Jensen today. Find details and register for the Mission Day at tinyurl.com/lwmsheartland.

WELS ONLINE BIBLE STUDY

The Catechism is not just a book for children to study in Confirmation Class. It is a precious, valuable resource for the Christian life. The theme of this fall's Interactive Faith Bible Study is "What does this mean? The continuing importance of Luther's Small Catechism." This online bible study, led by Pastor John Braun of Northwestern Publishing House, will be held Wednesdays, now through October 26, at 7:00 and 9:00 pm. To join the study or view archived lessons, visit www.wels.net/interactivefaith.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP BIBLE STUDY

What is our role as Christians in earthly governments? How do we live as citizens of heaven and citizens of earth, when the two so often seem to be at odds with one another? What does God say about the Church, the State, and the role he has given us in each one? Join us for a new Bible Study, Christian Citizenship in Church and State, Sundays at 9:15 am. God Bless Our Native Land: Prayers for an Election Year, a booklet published by NPH is available to purchase for $1.00.
