“Thought for this Week”

Read Hebrews 13:1-8.

Philadelphia means “the city of brotherly love.” It’s also the Greek word God uses to describe the attitude we are to have for one another. The philadelphia bursts forth into action. That stranger in need? He’s my brother. That man behind bars and that woman in the abusive relationship? My brother and my sister. Philadelphia lusts neither after other people’s bodies nor other people’s money. Instead it sees the person next to me as an opportunity to serve and the money in my pocket as a means to serve. And, most of all, it sees Jesus my Savior with me every step of the way—never changing, never leaving, always faithful, always forgiving, always loving me like his own brother or sister.

Mission Prayer:

WELS Synod Convention

Lord of the church, thank you for the blessings of unity and stability that you have given to our church body. This year’s synod convention showed that much is going well for us as we train workers for ministry and send them out to proclaim your gospel. Please continue to guide and bless our efforts for the benefit of your people throughout the world. Amen.

Rainbow Savior

Are gay people “born that way” or do they have a choice in the matter? Is homosexuality an issue of nature or nurture or both? Most importantly, how do we approach this argument of “born that way” from the Scriptures and bring Christ into the conversation with Law and Gospel? That will be the focus of this week’s Rainbow Savior bible study. We will also ask ourselves: What does the Bible say to all of us about how we are born into this world? What solution does the Scripture present, if any solution at all? Join us this Wednesday at 7:00 pm.

2016 Ministry Plans

In the weeks ahead, our leadership team will be working on plans for our ministry in 2016. If you have ideas or feedback you would like to share, please contact David Chen (Fellowship), Pastor Wagner (Education), or Dave Szczublewski (Evangelism or other).

Make a Joyful Noise

Our choir will soon begin another season of praise and worship. We invite all members to join us. No experience is necessary. Rehearsals will be Wednesdays at 6:15 pm, beginning September 16. See Elisabeth Wagner for details.

Celebrating with You

We list member birthdays and wedding anniversaries on our monthly calendar and in the Weekly News & Notes. If yours has not been listed and you would like it included, contact Pastor or email lamb-of-god-columbus@gmail.com.
